Experience the Newly Emerging Society of the USSR

In 1984, we began traveling to the Soviet Union. We have taken thousands of Americans to see the "enemy" for themselves. Walls of past stereotypes fell as we destroyed the enemy by making them our friends. Now the USSR is entering a new era. Old social structures are crumbling the new are ready to be born. We invite you to share: New ideas, new thoughts, new concepts. It is a time of both crises and opportunity. Let's take the next step. See these new leaders in the makings.
