

TWELVE JOINT PROJECTS FROM SUMMIT I

International Task Force on Terrorism

John Marks, Search for Common Ground
2005 Massachusetts Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20036
202-265-4300
Soviet Counterpart: Igor Belyaev

Soviet-American Peace Corps

Fred Noland, Ploughshares
1712 34th Avenue, Seattle, WA 98122
206-323-6525
Soviet Counterpart: Svetlana Savitskaya

Glasnost Film Festival

Ed Levy, 135 Central Park West, New York, NY 10023
212-595-7666

Publication of New Capitalism/Socialism Book

William Halal, George Washington University
Washington, DC 20052
202-994-5975 ; (w) 202-965-0581
Soviet Counterpart: Alexander Nikiton
"One World: The Union of a New Capitalism and a New Socialism." has been published and was given an award for his literary work. Alexander Nikiton, William's Soviet partner, has been working similarly on the Russian language version.

Joint Publication of Childrens Literature

Tom Pettepiece, P.O. Box 3560, Idyllwild, CA 92349
714-659-2389
Soviet Counterpart: Anatoli Alexin

International Forum on Human Rights

Rabbi Sheldon Moss, Beyond War
147 4th Street, Encinitas, CA 92024
619-943-7915; (w) 619-451-1200
The Forum has turned into an on-going organization with its own 501(c)3 status designed to further conflict resolution in Soviet-American relations, and the development of the technology of conflict resolution in the USSR. As a result of a December, 1988 meeting in Moscow, five major projects have emerged on topics as diverse as terrorism and human rights education which have been influential both in the USSR and USA. The organization is urgently seeking funding to further its work.

International Council on Alcoholism

Father Luis Dolan
Wainwright House, 185 Avenue D, New York, NY 10009
212-228-4494

A number of productive exchanges have been held between psychological, spiritual and medical professionals involved in the research and treatment of alcoholism in the two countries. A US delegation visited Moscow in April 1989 for a conference with their Soviet counterparts, visiting a Moscow treatment center and exploring concerns regarding employment and other problems arising from alcoholism. Another conference was held in December 1989 in New York, it featured an exchange of US and Soviet youth concerned with finding solutions to the problem of alcoholism in their generation.

SOVAMINCO Joint Venture

Marty Lopata
16902 Bolsa Chica Road, Suite 203
Huntington Beach, CA 91351
714-840-4848

This prolific and productive joint venture has been leading the way in designing and implementing creative American-Soviet business partnerships in the USSR. Already activated are publishing and quick-print companies in Moscow; computer rental, desktop publishing services and tour guide service in Leningrad; an exclusive distributorship for USA Today newspaper and Newsweek magazine in the USSR, and a variety of others. More are planned, including gambling casinos and video rental stores.

Production of Film on Stereotypes

Laurien Towers, Laurien Productions, Inc.
15237 Sunset Blvd, Pacific Palisades, CA 90272
213-454-9490; (w) 213-459-0257

Video Productions and Satellite Linkups

Don Martin, KPVS-TV/FM
5164 College Avenue, San Diego, CA 92115, 619-594-4705;

India Reforestation Program, War Trauma Program

Danaan Parry, Earthstewards Foundation
P.O. Box 10697, Bainbridge Island, WA 98110
206-842-7986

Peace Wall

Carolyn Marks, 1427 Milvia, Berkeley, CA 94709
415-527-2356
Soviet Counterpart: Nadia Burova
One wall as cultural encyclopedia of artists lost in Stalin era.